

Why choose QMS?

QMS provides a professional, hassle-free consultancy and support service for organisations seeking certification.

We've helped thousands of organisations achieve certification, both in the UK and worldwide. Our award-winning services can guide you through the full process of certification, from drafting a compliant documented management system to delivering on-site training and certification.

With more than 40 experienced and IRCA-trained consultants and auditors nationwide, we offer knowledgeable support throughout the certification process, making it as effortless as possible.

As a customer of QMS you will also benefit from access to QMS Connect, our secure online client management system portal. This contains training videos, templates, certification marks and certificates and provides a safe place for you to store, update and archive documents for your management system.

By teaming up with QMS you can be confident that you are working with a certification body that puts quality and customer satisfaction first.
